This notice responds to the Commission's Request for Additional Information dated January 4, 2023.

Item 1 - Mark Cohen and Erik Doerr are U.S. donors that live abroad that made contributions. They are not foreign nationals.

Item 2 - Justice Democrats maintains a Non-Contribution account consistent with the stipulated judgment in Carey v. FEC. On review of the contributions, donors were provided and consented to notifications within 60 days of receipt that amounts above $5,000 contributed to the Committee would be allocated to the Committee's Non-Contribution account.

As such, the Committee did not refund these contributions, but is amended the relevant reports to move amounts above $5,000 per calendar year to Line17 and have transferred these funds to the Non-Contribution account. Please see the itemization below.

Damien Agostinelli - $2500 was transferred to the Non-Contribution account on 11/28/2022 and $1000 was transferred on 12/31/2022.

Alex Bastani - $125 was transferred to the Non-Contribution account on 11/28/2022.

Colleen Haas - $2000 was transferred to the Non-Contribution account on 11/28/2022.

Charles Spurr -$2550 was transferred to the Non-Contribution account on 12/31/2022.

Kraig Peck - $125 was transferred to the Non-Contribution account on 9/30/2022.

Patricia Storace - $1,210 was transferred to the Non-Contribution account on 12/31/2022.

In addition to the above, the Committee has undertaken a diligent search to determine whether contributors to its Contribution account exceed applicable limits.
